

nihsonaminki Myaamiaki Conference

myaamia neepwaantiinki
Myaamia Education

Saturday, March 29, 2008

- 9:00 Myaamia-Peewaalia Winter Stories Within Algonquian. Dr. David J. Costa
Miami Tribe of Oklahoma Language Committee, El Cerrito, CA.
- 9:40 Making Science Relevant in Myaamia Education Using ašihkiwi-kiišikwi (Earth-Sky) Words and Stories.
Dr. Timothy McCoy, National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.
- 10:20 My Education at Miami University: Tribal Student Perspectives.
Panel session with Miami University tribal students.
- 11:00 Connecting the Myaamia Community Through Electronic Media. Andrew Strack
Media Specialist, Myaamia Project at Miami University, Oxford, OH.
- 12:00 Box lunch for registered participants.
- 1:10 Tribal Participation and Tribal Connection: A Report on the Eewansaapita Language Camp.
Dr. Wesley Leonard, Miami Tribe of Oklahoma Language Committee and University of California, Berkeley.
- 1:50 *myaamia nipwaantiikaaninkonci pyaayaani. niiya iilwiaanki; "neepwaayaani wiiyoonkonci neepwaankiaani":
I come from the Miami Schoolhouse, there we say; "I teach because I learn".* George Ironstrack, Miami Tribe of Oklahoma Cultural Resource Advisory Committee, Myaamia Heritage Museum & Archive Board, Chicago, IL.
- 2:30 Cultural Resource Management and its Role in Tribal Education. Joshua Sutterfield
Miami Tribe of Oklahoma Cultural Resources Officer, Miami, OK.
- 3:10 Myaamia Home Education: Parent Perspectives.
Panel session with tribal families.

Location: Miami University's Marcum
Conference Center

Sponsors: Miami Tribe of Oklahoma
The Myaamia Project

Co-Sponsors: Division of Student Affairs

More info at: www.myaamiaproject.org

neepwaantiiyankwi